Memorial Day Traditions

"Flags out" is a Memorial Day tradition started with the 3d U.S. Infantry Regiment ("The Old Guard") placing over 260,000 American flags in front of headstones at Arlington National Cemetery to honor fallen heroes. The event started in 1948 and occurs annually before Memorial Day weekend, with flags placed one boot-length from each grave, and later removed in a "Flags In" ceremony. This tradition has spread across America, and we will assist in this event with Flag's out on May 23, 8am, and Flag's In on May 30th, 8am. Please meet at the Canteen on these days to participate. This is a great way to share time with your kids and grandkids.
